

Indicators of Affordability of Nutritious Diets in Africa

UNIVERSITY OF GHANA - LEGON

Ghana Stakeholders and End-Users Workshop

Tuesday 8 August 2017

Coconut Grove Regency Hotel

Mozambique Link, North Ridge - Accra, Ghana

Agenda

Time	Session
8:30	Registration and morning tea and coffee
9:00	Welcome from Prof. Daniel Bruce Sarpong (IANDA, University of Ghana)
9:05	Opening remarks from Prof. Anna Larrey (FAO UN) on the UN Decade of Action on Nutrition, and the need for better data
9:30	Introduction to IANDA: Motivation, Data, and Collaborations from Dr. Anna Herforth (IANDA)
10:00	Monitoring the Cost of Nutritious Diets: Updates from MoFA-SRID from Mr. John Nortey and team
10:30	Data from the Ghana Statistical Service: Current methods and Updates from Mr. Anthony Amuzu-Pharin
10:45	Coffee break
11:00	New Indicators of Affordability of Nutritious Diets and discussion, led by Dr. Anna Herforth (IANDA)
11:45	Individual hands-on practice for calculating the indicators
12:00	Buffet lunch
1:00	Debrief of indicator calculation
1:15	Discussions on indicator uptake and use , introduced by Ms. Paulina Addy (WIAD)
2:30	Coffee break
2:45	Panel on the Future of Food Price Data Collection and Use in Ghana , facilitated by Prof. Daniel Bruce Sarpong with members of the MoFA-SRID, MoFA-WIAD, GSS, GHS, and others
3:45	Closing remarks from Mr. John Nortey

For further information about the project, please contact:

Zachary Gersten, MPH

Research Coordinator

Gerald J. and Dorothy R. Friedman School of Nutrition Science and Policy, Tufts University

Boston, MA, USA 02111

zachary.gersten@tufts.edu